SongSisters – Sue Fink, Patti Shaffner, and Amy Dixon-Kolar – are singer/songwriter friends who discovered that their own distinctive styles worked very well together, like contrasting spices that somehow blend to make one very tasty stew. While continuing to pursue solo careers, they found that joining voices as SongSisters gave them another creative and fun way to share their music. Each takes the lead on songs they’ve written, adding harmonies and instrumentation to each other’s music and to others’ work that inspires them.

SongSisters have performed for enthusiastic audiences at venues that include:

- ♫ Davenport’s Piano Bar & Cabaret (Chicago) – where their live CD was recorded by Bruce Roper (Sons of the Never Wrong)
- ♫ Front Porch Music (Valparaiso, IN)
- ♫ Lake County Folk Club (Gurnee, IL)
- ♫ Westchester Public Library’s “Music and Movie” Series (Chesterton, IN)
- ♫ Uncommon Ground (Chicago)
- ♫ JustGoods Listening Room Series (Rockford, IL)

They have performed at benefits, art festivals, and live radio shows; their SongSisters LIVE! CD has received airplay nationwide (as have their individual CDs). SongSisters connect with their audiences, who enjoy the variety of their musical offerings, as well as the opportunities to join them in song.

"The SongSisters? Top shelf talent times three and a pure delight! Sue Fink, Amy Dixon-Kolar, Patti Shaffner ... are outstanding solo artists who shine alone, but together become a solar force to be reckoned with, as they exchange their superb songs along with exceptional harmonies, friendly bantering and spot-on humor--great music and great entertainment from these lovely ladies!" – Lilli Kuzma, host, “Folk Festival,” WDCB 90.9 Public Radio

"SongSisters packed the place and I noticed that many in the audience were smiling from their ears."
– Scott Engstrom, The Lake County Folk Club
